Customer Reviews

All Gaudi's major works, and more--his decorative objects, use of tile and glass, and closeups the wonderful detail of color and texture--are covered in this exciting volume that will entrance both existing admirers and those new to his visionary architecture.Exquisite photography and detailed descriptions of sites provide a compelling entree into the Gaudi world. As an architectural color consultant I particularly enjoy Gaudi's bold, personal style of color in architecture. I'm happy to have the English edition so I can actually read the text!
