These are, indeed, easy solos, but they are good for articulation, which can apply to players at any level. I like that this book has chord symbols. That way, you could play with a guitar. It has Pachel's "Canon" and "Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring," both of which are wedding songs. I don't know of any other clarinet book that has chords. A good book for players of all skills.

I played the clarinet through high school and just recently decided to pick it up for fun and play some easy tunes here and there. It's been over 10 years so while I'm not completely starting from the beginning, my technique has definitely faded. However, these are very very easy one page songs in simple to follow keys. Definitely good if you're learning to play for the first time. I played through the whole book in under 15 minutes.

I am an intermediate player and find these to be fun. They capture the songs without being too complex or too simplistic.

I'm a novice clarinet player, and this book is perfect for motivation! The songs are simple enough that I feel like I've accomplished something when I've mastered one.

Got this for my granddaughter who's learning to play and loves the sound of clarinet. So happy to have found this great gift.

This book is simple to understand. It has the music pieces I like and it is easy to read
