Get the ISBN for the casebook that you are supposed to buy, then check the value of it on resale - then pick your jaw up off the table. Casebooks are a total waste of money. A Gilbert's Law Summary and a Case Brief Book is most of what you need to understand the information on a subject. The less "stuff" you have for studying, the more valuable time you can invest in each tool, a Gilbert's is a solid tool in every subject. Best wishes for much success, always!

excellent product

Very Informative and too the point. Use by most to study for state bar exams.

Concise outline that is very easy to follow and extremely helpful. It gives examples and cases to further explain the rules.
