I can highly recommend also the following wonderful translation of Umberto Saba's work: The Poems of Trieste and Five Poems for the Game of Soccer, A unique selection of the best poetry by Umberto Saba, translated in

I bought this book because I needed to read some of the material inside for a class. This edition doesn't exactly contain all of the Saba highlights, and I had to seek other texts to find some of the material I needed, but it's a decent compilation and had some of what I was looking for.

Saba's poetry is superbly translated and beautifully presented in the Margellos World Republic of Letters edition.
